You will need to log in or register for the CDISC Wiki to access documents and provide comments.

- To register for the Wiki: Register. JIRA and Wiki use the same login, please create only one account.
  CDISC Wiki is a different login from www.cdisc.org.

- Perform your review on both the "ADaM MSG sections" and "ADaM MSG examples" views of the MSG, available from the menu on the left side of this page. The "ADaM MSG sections" portion contains the actual ADaM MSG, while the "ADaM MSG examples" contains a sample submission, including Define.xml, .xpt files and ADRG, along with a sample Complex Algorithms template and example. Comments are welcome on all components, though please be aware that the datasets come from the CDISC Pilot, and formal study documentation is rather sketchy, so many actual derivations are missing from the Define.xml.

To add comments to JIRA from within the Wiki (use this method for adding comments on the "ADaM MSG sections"):

1. Select the text to which you wish to attach the comment. After a moment, a small contextual menu should appear.

   !Contextual Menu

   This method only works for text and content rendered on the wiki page(s). Comments on files attached to the document must be entered manually in Jira. Please reference the file and location within when creating your issue.

   See "To add comments from within JIRA" below.

2. Within the contextual menu, click on the icon with the 3 arrows. This will trigger an abbreviated Create Issue form.

   Instructions for creating an issue can be found here: https://confluence.atlassian.com/display/JIRA/Creating+an+Issue

2. Click on the "Create" button in the top menu to bring up the Create Issue form.
3. Make sure the project is set to "ADaM MSG" and the issue type is set to "Review Comments".
4. Fill out the form.
   a. In the Summary field, describe the content to which the comment applies.
   b. Enter your comment, and any additional details, in the Description field. To help the team address your comment properly, be thorough.
5. Click the "Create" button in the bottom right corner of the form to submit.
